

Grant Hayenga

10-25-89

ANDOVER - The funeral for Grant Hayenga, 21, Andover, was held Tuesday, Oct. 17 at United Methodist Church in Groton. The Rev. Wayne Tieszen officiated.

A memorial service was held Wednesday at Augustana College.

Burial was in the Andover Cemetery with graveside rites by the Andover Masonic Lodge.

Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton, was in charge of arrangements.

He died Friday, Oct. 13, 1989, in rural Brookings.

Grant Hayenga was born January 14, 1968, at Brookings to Cal and Mary (Balo) Hayenga. He graduated from Groton High School in May 1986.

While in high school, he was a member of the National Honor Society and national Forensic League. He served as vice president of the student council, won titles in state men's extemporaneous speaking and conference debate. He was editor of the school paper and was on the yearbook staff. He served as a librarian. He was a member of the math club, pep club, choir, and acted as pop concert master of ceremony. He won an oral interpretation contest.

At the time of his death, he was a senior at Augustana College in Sioux Falls. At college, he was a regent scholar and was on the dean's list. He served as governor on the student development board and was public relations director of Augustana Student Association.

His extra-curricular activities were: leadership development committee, radio disc jockey, dorm council representative, college drama, Gladstonian Society, film board, coffeehouse committee, inaugural committee, Viking Days parade coordinator and South Dakota Symphony Box Office. He has a public relations internship with Augustana Public Events Office.

He was a member of United Methodist Church, Groton, Corinthian Masonic Lodge, Andover, Scottish Rite Valley, Aberdeen, ElRiad Shrine, Sioux Falls, and Circle K at Augustana.

Survivors include his parents of Andover; one brother, Erik, at home; his paternal grandmother, Olive Hayenga, Andover; and his maternal grandmother, Marjorie Balo, Prescott Valley, Ariz.

He was preceded in death by his two grandfathers.

Casketbearers were Torre Raap, Brad Morehouse, Tim Olson, Jerry Bell, Brian Townsend and Barry Smith.

Organist was Marilyn Gibbs.